

Do you want to increase your sales?

Without effort and own advertising costs?

ESSKA is your solution:

About 300 suppliers already use our platform with great success to increase their sales.

You can do it too!

As a specialist dealer, ESSKA.uk presents and markets technical products of more than 300 partners successfully on about 22,000 websites. Not as another article catalogue but as active reseller.

Sell your products simply via ESSKA.uk!

What suppliers say about us:

"Unbelievable! From zero to a purchase sum of 350,000 Euros in only one year. This exceeds our boldest expectations!"

"This year, they ordered goods to the value of 65,000 Euros from us – this is an increase of more than 20%!"

"We were a bit skeptical, but from zero to 8,000 Euros in only 2 months convinced us. Keep it up!"

We present your products to an international public on a professional and reliable sales platform with more than 22,000 pages.

You profit from our high awareness level and our intense online marketing.

2002: ESSKA.de starts its online presence

2004: The number of 10,000 products is reached.

Internet sales on the successful example of Amazon:

In only a few years, Amazon developed into to the biggest distributor worldwide – a success story that hardly anyone would have imagined.

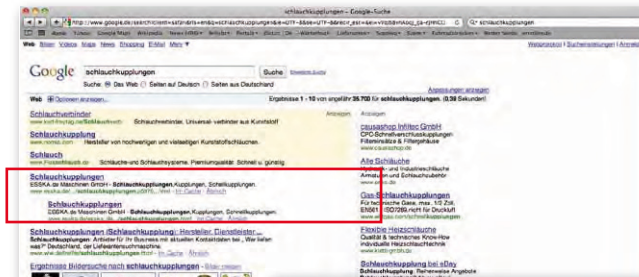

The good news: The internet offers more sales opportunities than ever. You only have to take them...

Did you know...

... that your products have to be listed on the first 3 result pages of a search engine to even be seen by prospective customers?

We make your products visible on the internet:

- Intense online marketing and professional search engine optimization.
- Newsletter every 2 weeks to 60,000 customers.
- All articles in 4 languages, other languages in progress.
- Branch in Sweden for the Scandinavian market.

Thanks to our professionally sophisticated internet marketing, your products are shown by Google on the first result page.

2005: Our professional trade is fully replaced by online trade

Search engines become increasingly important for the purchasing of goods:

High pressure to rationalize forces employees to fast reactions: only the first result page finds attention.

Smartphones and the internet replace the search in lists and catalogues...

By means of online marketing, our pages – and thus your articles – are presented by the search engines on the first page.

2007: Move into our own company building

We take a different approach – and make it easier for the customers:

- Numerous possibilities to contact us
- Detailed search function
- Personal consultation
- Technically trained employees
- No log-in or order obligation – also requests without engagement are answered

Why ESSKA.uk should be your partner for marketing your products?

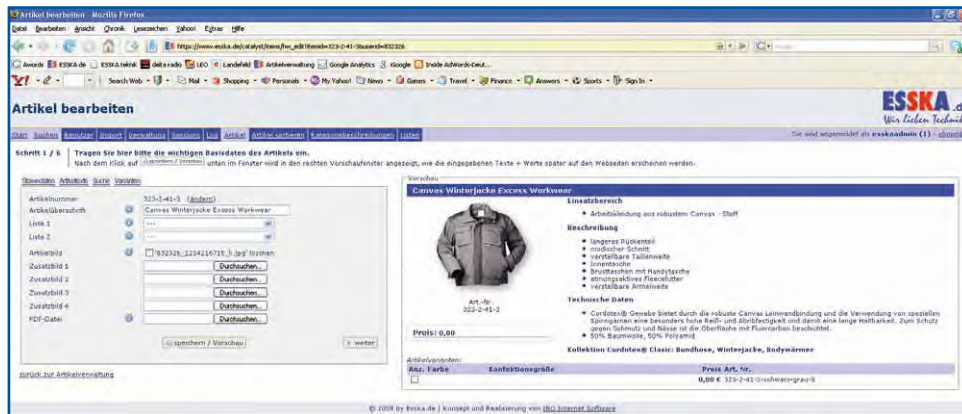

- You reach customers you normally wouldn't reach
- You can sell your products through the internet without having to have an own online-shop
- ESSKA.uk fosters regular contact with clients and sells also small quantities
- Placing articles on our website is still free of charge
- Our editorial team assures the professional presentation of your products.

2008: Already about 70,000 articles on 13,000 pages

Entering articles yourself - easily and professionally:

- A mask leads you step by step through the process. You can see immediately, how the article will be displayed later.
- We check the new entry and put it online.
- We undertake the advertising in the search engines
- With professional assistance, we are always ready to aid you in questions of entering your products

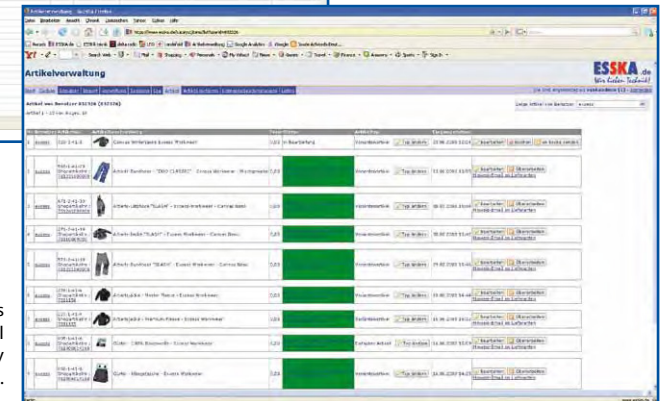

This is how articles are shown when they are entered manually. You can see immediately how it would be shown in the shop. New articles can be placed in the shop quickly and flexibly from your office.

... or simply have your articles entered by us:

- Useful for larger quantities (more than 300 articles)
- Simple transfer of article data via database (e.g. Excel, CSV- or BMECat file)

Example table with all relevant data

This is how your products are shown on our article portal and subsequently are editorially perfected by our team.

2009: Already 130,000 articles on 15,000 pages

2010: About 150,000 articles on 22,000 pages

ESSKA.uk – your expert partner for the online marketing of your products
